Global Mobility in 2020 saw huge change. The need for organisations to adapt to a distributed workforce has been paramount for business continuity in this new world of work. 2021 will see the continued need for transformation in order to navigate the new age of Talent Mobility. Hosted by the Global Mobility Executive we'll touch on the lessons and success captured from 2020 and the key trends facing Global Mobility as we head into the new year. Join this session to share ideas, insights, and key learnings with your peers.

Global Mobility Re-Imagined 2021

- What key trends will be most prevalent in the next 12 months?
  - Attracting and retaining diverse talent
  - Remote workers and virtual assignees
  - Harnessing technology to monitor remote employees
  - Increased focus on compliance
  - Duty of care and assignee well-being
- How did 2020 impact your mobility organisation? What changed coming into 2021 and why?
- What measures (temporary or permanent) have been implemented to overcome challenges associated with not being able to relocate talent to fill roles, especially skills gaps?
